Grant Writing 101 for Public Health Professionals

Please join us for a comprehensive, hands-on, full day workshop designed specifically for public health professionals working in the practice community. The course content will help you identify and write proposals for community based grant opportunities.

Learning Objectives:
1. Understand the four elements of the project development process.
2. Describe how to identify and connect with potential funders that match for your agencies needs.
3. Demonstrate how to use themes and messages in your proposal to persuade potential funders.
4. Describe the seven basics questions for all grant applications/proposals.
5. Define the six essential components of a grant application/proposal.
6. Identify the vital components to creating a budget and budget justification.

Instructor:

Kate Stoddard, MA has over 25 years in higher education resource development. She has worked in the health-related field with funding from various sources. Kate has taught grant writing for the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), the League of Women Voters, Connecticut’s regional Library Councils and the Greater Bridgeport Area Community Foundation.

Course is free, but seating is limited to 30 people per course, so pre-registration is required at www.ct.train.org by choosing COURSE ID#1049911. Contact: Anjuli Bodyk at 203-737-6264 or anjuli.bodyk@yale.edu.

This training is funded by HRSA Public Health Training Center Grant Award No. 1 UB6HP22828-01-00